NEW DESIGN—Men's summer sportswear takes linear distinction in new design. Blue cotton shirt features an overlaid horizontal strap with matching button tab, short cuffed sleeve and fly front. Also comes in pewter or sand. Sizes small to extra large under $6. Sand colored twist slacks have tunnel belt loops and their own adjustable elasticized jute belt with brass medalion buckle. Also in light green olive, blue, taupe or black. Waist sizes 28 to 42, under $5. Both are available at J. C. Penney.

Bedazzled Local Spectators Will See Daring Riders

The Cossack drag, Roman stand, Texas skip and six-horse catch—these and many other maneuvers involving daring and skill—will bedazzle spectators at the 1961 Sheriff's Rodeo Saturday night, June 24, in the Coliseum.

Other rodeo daredevils slated to display their wizardry and sleight-of-hand in the world's greatest one-day revival of the spirit of the Old West are Rex and Wanda Rossi, a riding husband-and-wife team; Edith Happy, Donna Hall, Pat North, May Boss and Marry Stetler.

Although ticket sales are running well ahead of last year, there are still choice locations available for the nocturnal rodeo in the 17-year history of the outdoor extravaganza—only event of its kind staged in the Coliseum. Tickets may be purchased now at all sheriff's stations and county marshal's offices.

TWIRLING TWOSOME—Rex and Wanda Rossi, a riding and roping husband-and-wife team, will join other colorful trick riders and ropers in daring stunts at the 1961 Sheriff's Rodeo Saturday night, June 24. Eleven of the country's most outstanding rodeo daredevils will be seen in whirlwind action at the mammoth outdoor spectacle—only event of its kind staged each year in the Coliseum.
